

Hours Against Hate is a movement to help end hate in Milwaukee and throughout our community.

Powerful in its simplicity, Hours Against Hate was founded on the idea that one-on-one interactions between individuals who are different from each other can promote respect and dismantle bigotry. The program mobilizes participants to spend an hour or more interacting with someone of a different race, culture, religion, tradition, class, sexual orientation, gender, or physical ability.
